

NARBHERAM HANSRAJ ENGLISH SCHOOL

PEACE POLE

21st September is celebrated all around the world as 'International Peace Day'. On 22nd September the Interact club of our School installed a Peace Pole in school premises with the message 'MAY PEACE PREVAIL ON EARTH' in 11 different Indian languages. Year before last our school had installed a peace pole giving the message of peace in 20 different International languages.

Two students of class XI, Siwani Gupta and Shruti Agarwal recited poems on peace. Siwani Gupta recited the poem 'Five Ways to Kill a Man' by Edwin Brock. The poem is simple but meaningful and relevant to the contemporary world we live in. The poet shows the evolution of the desire to kill and the manifestation of killing from the time of Jesus Christ 200yrs. ago. We see how human nature has over a period of time added to the ferocity of killing and how inhuman it has become.

Shruti Agarwal recited the poem 'Dulce at Decorum Est' by Wilfred Owen. In this poem, we find how Wilfred Owen's own experience in the first World War made him realize the brutal reality of war. He stated that there is nothing sweet or noble in war. It is rather as obscene as cancer and like a night mare.

The Principal Mrs. Paramita Roy Chaudhury spoke about inner peace and made an appeal to all to 'Give Peace a Chance'.